The Eraser allows you to remove unwanted pixels and objects from an image. The Pen tool allows you to transform an image into another type of image. For example, you can create the appearance of a texture by using the Pen tool on a regular photo. The Fade or Dodge tool allows you to make an image slightly brighter or darker. You can also use the Dodge tool to make an image even darker or lighter. The Gradient tool allows you to apply a gradient fill to an object on an image. The Spot Healing Brush tool can often fix minor defects in a photo. The Masking tools let you edit or un-edit an area of an image. The Brush tool is one of the most common ones. The Measure tool allows you to measure distances or angles. The Clipping Path tool lets you modify the way an image appears when it is printed or displayed on the screen. The Adjustment Brush is a tool that lets you correct specific mistakes and adjust the look of the image. The Pen tool allows you to create lines on the image. The Live Paint or Live Trace allows you to draw objects or mark up an image with other symbols or text. The Image-editing techniques are one of the most powerful tools Photoshop provides. You can enhance and manipulate your photos and video. Use these techniques for magic, retouching, effects, and more. Mask and Brush tools are the most common tools in Photoshop. This tutorial will cover the basic methods and ideas of using the Adobe Photoshop Mask tool and Photoshop brush tools, including a number of different basic techniques that will be useful for most users. In the photo editing section of Adobe Photoshop, you can use a variety of tools and techniques for working on images. Photoshop allows you to manipulate images with virtually limitless tools. Learn more about photo editing with Adobe Photoshop in this free online tutorial. What's New In?

#13 - Rising Sun Hoedown

Another day, another letter/zine deadline.

Currently I have a deadline for a letter this weekend so I am cramming as many words in as I can before putting my head on the pillow. I'm hoping to get a decent number for my last update of the year, since I'll have been working on this for a month, getting my notes all lined up. In all honesty it was not too bad of a letter. I am attempting to put some really complicated stuff into shorthand – on the one hand I don't want to make everyone think that I can't write a letter properly so it takes a while to produce, but on the other I feel like this is how a lot of us write a letter with our families. I mean, the last letter I wrote was 10 paragraphs and it took me a solid hour to produce. But this is still pretty spartan. I wish I could spend more time on this. Another letter/zine assignment that came in, this time from T.O., is for a middle grade fantasy story. If you want to be friends, or if you hate me, send me a card. In either case, all is well. -R.L. Stine That's all I have for you this week. Again, if I take a minute to answer a question, I will be sure to do that, and if I can't answer it, someone else will. Thanks for all of your great questions last week. Also, I just want to let you know that next week will be my last for a while, at least for a while, as I am taking a couple weeks off to get ready for Christmas. I'll be returning on the 20th.
